IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.

FOR the last three years I have been engaged in a fair business, known only to myself, and cleared the sum of $2000 each, which has averaged me at the rate of from $5,000 to $6,000 per annum, and having made arrangements to go to Europe, I am desirous of selling out the same upon the most favorable terms. I am desirous of giving full instructions in the Art to every person who will remit me the sum of One Dollar.

Indeed from the success I have met with, and the many happy acknowledgments I have received from those I have instructed in the Art, and who are now making from $10 to $15 per day, to give every person an income to come into possession of this valuable means of making a small fortune. There is no lectures about the business herein alluded to. Inference of the best advertisement you can regards its character, and I can also refer to persons in Philadelphia as well as in this city, who have, within four months, worked in the business in the Art, and testify that they are making from $3 to $15 per day at the same. It is a business in which either ladies or gentlemen can engage, and with perfect success. Several ladies in various parts of Pennsylvania and Maryland, whom I have instructed in the Art, are now clearing from $8 to $6 per day.

And lost a few days in order to get started in the Art. Upon receipt of $1.00, I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular, containing full instructions in the Art, which will be perfectly understood upon perusal, or a card.

JESSIE ALLISON,

By Frederick Law Olmsted.

One volume, 12mo. 735 pages, with wood cuts. Price $1.50

This work is written in the quiet, candid, good-humored, and mainly style which rendered the author's previous narrative of travel so widely popular. The description of Southern Life and Scenery are picturesque and dramatic, and much more detailed and accurate than those of most other writers. The book, in fact, offers just that kind of information about the South and its institutions, which the public now demands; less of wild or extraordinary and more of personal, and one of that which illustrates every-day life and general character, than has been before attempted. Secondly, in matters of controversy, the author is careful and conscientious, but expresses his own conclusions frankly and unmistakeably.

The Southern Cultivator prefaces that this book will have "greater influence on the minds of readers" than Uncle Tom's Cabin has had.

The New York Daily Times says of it: "This work will be by far the best yet published on the subject."

The New Orleans Delta observes of the author:—"Prejudiced as his opinions were, he was not a wilfully dishonest man or an unfair writer. We would welcome a few more men of his calibre amongst us—prejudiced, but manly and honest."

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.

FOR the last three years I have been engaged in a fair business, known only to myself, and cleared the sum of $2000 each, which has averaged me at the rate of from $5,000 to $6,000 per annum, and having made arrangements to go to Europe, I am desirous of selling out the same upon the most favorable terms. I am desirous of giving full instructions in the Art to every person who will remit me the sum of One Dollar.

Indeed from the success I have met with, and the many happy acknowledgments I have received from those I have instructed in the Art, and who are now making from $10 to $15 per day, to give every person an income to come into possession of this valuable means of making a small fortune. There is no lectures about the business herein alluded to. Inference of the best advertisement you can regards its character, and I can also refer to persons in Philadelphia as well as in this city, who have, within four months, worked in the business in the Art, and testify that they are making from $3 to $15 per day at the same. It is a business in which either ladies or gentlemen can engage, and with perfect success. Several ladies in various parts of Pennsylvania and Maryland, whom I have instructed in the Art, are now clearing from $8 to $6 per day.

And lost a few days in order to get started in the Art. Upon receipt of $1.00, I will immediately send to the applicant a printed circular, containing full instructions in the Art, which will be perfectly understood upon perusal, or a card.

Supreme Court—Supreme Court Reports.

Some anonymous scribbler comes to the aid of the News lately silenced correspondent, on the subject of the Supreme Court and the Reports, and, in yesterday's issue of that paper, inflicts a column and a half of twaddle upon its readers. Aside from an unwillingness to give any serious notice to the assertions of a nameless, irresponsible writer, the article itself is of such a pointno-point character, as to be unworthy of reply.

We have gone over this subject of the Supreme Court Reports so often as to have shown every one, who is not stupid or malicious, the equity of our position. We have shown that we printed two volumes of Reports of Cases, furnished by the Reporter of the Court, in a style and of a size usual (if indeed the number of pages is not greater than usual), and at the average price of such volumes. We did this under a fair and just construction of the law calling for them. That is the whole story. The writer says:

"The Sentinel claims that it is now provided by law that the State shall take the reports which it did or shall hereafter print for the State, to the extent of four hundred copies of each volume, at four dollars per copy."

The Sentinel does not claim anything of the sort. The law authorizes the purchase of two hundred copies of the Reports subsequent to those of 1853, as any one but a blunderer, who talks foolishly of matters about which he knows nothing, would see by referring to it.

One paragraph in the article referred to, inasmuch as it relates to others besides ourselves, may be worthy of notice. The writer "modestly ventures to suggest a general objection to any Judge of the Supreme Court being the reporter of its decisions and going into partnership with a Sentinel on the watch tower of liberty to print the works to be sold to the State. The interests of the buyer and seller are adverse."

If this means anything, it means to intimate, in a cowardly manner, however, that Judge Smith is in partnership with us in the publication of the Reports. It is hardly necessary to deny the assertion, but we do it, as emphatically as if it were made by some responsible person, instead of a nameless scribbler, who, possibly because his success in the Courts is not equal to his self-conceit, assumes to cast a slur upon the Judges, and never thinks of the fact that it is his own blundering stupidity which disgusts his clients. The Court will probably survive his attacks. There was a case often quoted and appealed, where a little cur barked lustily all one night at the moon, but the moon kept quietly on her way all the time.

Milwaukee Relief Association.

At the last meeting of the Association, held on Tuesday evening, the Treasurer reported the receipt, thus far, of $743,25, and the expenditure of $696,11, leaving a balance of $19,14 on hand.

On motion of Mr. WILLIAMS, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved—That the Secretary be instructed to give notice in the city papers, calling on our citizens for aid both of funds and clothing, as the M. R. A. are now out of both.

On motion of Mr. ENDICOTT, the Collectors were requested to furnish the Secretary with a list of the contributors, and the amount collected from or subscribed by each, and that the same be published in the city papers.

The meeting adjourned to next Tuesday evening.

It is very gratifying to know that great good has thus far been accomplished by the efforts of the Visitors, Collectors, and officers of the Association, who all give their services without charge. A large quantity of clothing, provisions, &c., in addition to the above money expended, has been distributed to the needy, and many cases of extreme destitution provided for.

We learn from some of the visitors that they find some difficulty in getting along with a class of hard cases, who, finding that there is help at hand, refuse to help themselves, but come regularly each week and demand, in no very courteous terms, enough to support them comfortably. It requires the exercise of a wise discretion to manage such cases, and we think that we do not mistake the design of the Association, if we say that, in our judgment, they should be turned over to the county Superintendent of the Poor.

The Association is, as we said above, doing a great deal of good, but its funds are now low, and its stock of clothing, &c., nearly exhausted, while the demands for both increase with the lengthening out of the winter. We trust that their wants will be speedily supplied in both respects, and we cannot but think that they will be.

White is the virgin snow,
Bitter the morn;
For those starved children go,
Wretched, forlorn!
Feet without shoes or boots,
Backs without warm clothes,
Strangers to calm repose,
Why were they born?
* * * *
Ye whom the heavens bless,
Give from your store;
Twill never make your treasures less,
Must make them more;
For he that gives cheerfully,
God loves to lend to;
Give to them!—pray with me,
God help the poor!

We again urge all who have need of the services of laborers, or who wish to have washing done, or sewing, or need the services of women for day's work, to send word to some of the Visitors of the Association. There are a great many poor people who are ashamed to beg, and anxious to work, if they can have an opportunity.

MILWAUKEE & HORICON R. R.—TRAINS COMMENCE RUNNING!—On Monday next, the regular trains of the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R. Co., (as see advertisement,) will commence running to Hart'station, 10 miles from Horicon, and 52 miles from the city, so that, by the connection with the north end of the old Rock River Valley R. R., there will be but two miles staging between here and Fond du Lac, and that gap will be immediately closed. The latter company has changed its gauge so as to correspond with the Horicon R. R., so that cars will run directly through in a short time.

By the 18th of February, the Milwaukee & Horicon R. R. Co. hope to have their track laid to Waupun, and they will this year push onward in the rich region northwestward of that place, for the valuable trade of its enterprising citizens. Success to the Company, is the hearty wish of every Milwaukeean. Furnished with ample means for its next section, and enjoying a well-earned credit in financial quarters, it is bound to give us one of the very best roads, and its stock and bonds are a first-rate investment.

DONATION VISIT.—We regret that, through accident, we omitted to notice yesterday the donation visit to Rev. Mr. CLAPP, the Congregational pastor at Wauwatosa, whose house was burned a few weeks since. The visit took place yesterday, but, as Mr. CLAPP has many friends in this city who would doubtless be glad to remember him, we are sure that it is not yet too late to do so.

FLOGGING ON BOARD A STEAMSHIP.—In New York recently, the captain of the steamship Herman was fined $500 for punishing one of his saloon servants with five applications of a rope's end on his back. The act of Congress prohibiting flogging in the Navy and on board merchant vessels was cited, and the Court charged that after the passage of that act flogging at sea was illegal.

THE ERIE CANAL—STATE ENGINEERS REPORT.—The enlargement of the Erie Canal being a subject of vast interest to the West, we copy, for the information of our readers, the following abstract of the State Engineer's Report in relation to it, from the Buffalo Commercial:

The most important and expensive mechanical structures upon the Erie Canal Enlargement are nearly all completed. A large proportion of the section work and some of the small mechanical structures remain unfinished.

The entire length of the old line Canal is	352 84 miles.
The length of line for enlargement is	349 76 "
Distance saved by the enlargement	13 08 "

The plan of enlargement provides for double enlarged locks from Albany and Troy to the Seneca river, and for single locks from Seneca river to Buffalo, with the exception of the five double combined locks at Lockport, and one set of double locks at Macedon.

Out of the fifty-two sets of double locks between Albany and Troy and the Seneca river at Montezuma, forty-four are completed and in use, leaving only eight single locks to be finished in that distance.

Of the seventeen single locks between the Seneca river at Montezuma and Buffalo, the five combined double locks at Lockport, and the single set of double locks at Macedon, four locks remain to be finished. Of these four, two are located at Brighton, and one guard lock and one weigh lock at Black Rock.

There are thirty-six aqueducts on the whole line of the Erie Canal Enlargement, covering a distance of 6,967 feet. All of these are completed and in use except three, the aggregate length of which is 365 feet.

Mr. Clark reasons that the Enlarged Erie Canal has no need to be protected against the Railroad or other competition.

The Report assumes that there will be a deficiency in the means provided by the Constitution for the completion of the public works, of about $2,500,000. This deficiency, it should exist, Mr. Clark recommends should be met by a direct half-mill tax, which would produce about $700,000 per annum.

STARTLING IGNORANCE.—The Baltimore Patriot has the following with reference to the state of education in Maryland:

Too long has Maryland been remiss in providing for the intellectual wants of the poorer classes of her population; and to prove this beyond controversy, we propose to recapitulate a few startling facts.

There are within the limits of the State, according to the last census, seventeen thousand native adults, and three thousand four hundred and fifty-one foreigners—making in the aggregate twenty thousand eight hundred and fifteen persons—who can neither read nor write. Scattered over eight counties of the State, with an aggregate white population of about eighty thousand, there are but fourteen public schools, averaging about thirty-five pupils to each school. These are, of course, some private schools in those counties, but the entire number of children attending school at all does not average more than one child to every family of seven persons.

The head of every third family throughout the whole State can neither read nor write. More than ten thousand men exercise the right of suffrage in Maryland who are utterly unable even to read the names of the candidates for whom they vote.

☞ President Pierce has at last shown his hand on the Kansas question, and taken sides, as his antecedents led us to expect, with the Slavery propagandists.—Sentinel, yesterday.

For two years our neighbor has fluid up President PIERCE to the gaze of its readers as the willing instrument of the slave power, and as prostituting the influence of his administration to push slavery into the territories. The above paragraph looks somewhat like an admission that the case does not without warrant in the facts; for it is only in this last message that the President has shown his hand. For two years our neighbor has been on the wrong scent and the last message furnishes conclusive evidence of its error. —Ibid.

We are under great obligations to our Hunker neighbor for defining our position. Considering the source, it is as well as we could expect; but, inasmuch as it was the Kansas question, and not the general Slavery question, upon which we have been looking for an expression from the President, we cannot see the wit or wisdom of the commentary.

☞ A party of three Englishmen, last month, ascended Mount Ida, in Crete. They are said to be the first Englishmen who ever made this ascent—the remainder of the party stopping at the grotto where the infant Jupiter was hid. The first day's abode on Ida was devoted to shooting red-legged partridge; and on the third day the party of three saw, from the mountain, one of the most interesting and beautiful panoramic views in the world.

The mountain above referred to is, we believe the one from which, according to that voracious old Latin poet and philosopher, Lucretius, the workmen could, of a pleasant morning, quite early, be seen making suns, and "setting them off" as one would a bomb-shell now a-days. There was a shocking waste of iron, in letting them fall at night, and be lost in the sea, beyond the "pillars of Hercules" (Gibraltar.) We hope that our excellent Correspondent, Mr. French, will be able to visit Mt. Ida, and see if these things be so still.

BRAVE NEGROES.—A letter from Columbia, N. C., dated Jan. 18th, in giving an account of the wreck of the schooner Victoria Long, from St. Jago de Cuba for Philadelphia, says:

"The captain, passengers and crew are indebted to the negroes on the beach for their lives, who, on ascertaining the disaster, swam to the wreck, launched a raft, and with all on board it, towed it ashore. The passengers, captain and crew saved nothing but a portion of their clothing, after an exposure in the rigging for 24 hours. The heroism and gallantry displayed by the colored mariners have a universal claim for noble daring and philanthropy, on the community at large, for such noble conduct."

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.—We are glad to learn that there is a large majority of the Senate in favor of restoring the death penalty for murder. The Madison correspondent of the Free Democrat writes:

"The Senators who will certainly vote for the restoration, are—Adams, Dexter, Fitzgerald, Gibson, Gill, Kelsey, Ross, Weil, Barnes, Dunn, Gordon, Giles, Hadley, O'Neil, Taylor and Worthington—16. Harvey and Sutherland occupy a dubious position, and Barber, Clement, Smith, Cobb, Mills and Sholes—6—are opposed to it."

BOGUS BENEVOLENCE.—A Mrs. LINCOLN, of 425 Broome St., N. Y. has been arrested for swindling the benevolent out of some $5000, which she collected under pretence of being the agent of a "Ladies' Association for the benefit of poor Orphans"—said orphans being discovered to consist of herself, two daughters and a sister.

GOING TO RUSSIA.—The Pittsburgh Journal says that Winans, Harrison & Winans, a company of Americans who have been for some years in the employ of the Russian government on public works, are going now into the manufacture of ordnance at St. Petersburg.

N. K. Wade, of Pittsburgh, goes out to superintend the works, on a salary of $5000 per annum, to count from the day of his departure.

RAILROAD MEETING AT OSHKOSH.—The railroad meeting, mentioned yesterday as to be held at Oshkosh, proved to be a gathering to hear Messrs. ODDEN and NEGGLE, representing the R. R. V. U. R. R. Co., under its new name, in advocacy of the raising of means to continue that road from Janesville northward, through Oshkosh to Lake Superior.

GAS WORKS IN JANESVILLE.—The Gazette says that Mr. Stockwood, of this city, has contracted to construct gas works in Janesville, the work to be completed by the first of next September. —American.

Is not that rather a poor change for the good-looking name of the Great Mogul of the "American" order in this State.

MINNEAPOLIS LAND OFFICE, MINNESOTA.—The St. Paul Pioneer says that during the last year about 160,000 acres of land have been entered in the Minneapolis District Office. The largest amount entered by any one person, or Association, was 4,306 acres by JAMES B. MARTIN, Esq. of this city.

HOTEL AT WAUKESHA.—The citizens of Waukesha have held a public meeting, and appointed a committee to canvass the town for means to build a new first class hotel,—a building much needed in Waukesha, as well as elsewhere.

FREE LOVE IN ROCHESTER.—The policemen of Rochester, N. Y., have just broken up a nest of "free lovers," at their first public meeting, and put all of the parties in limbo.

Special Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Jan. 29, '56.

In the House to-day considerable business has been done. In the Assembly quite a lengthy and spirited debate on the Lawyer's Fee Bill, in which Messrs. Knowlton, Parr, Stark, and others participated. The bill was amended so as to prohibit the profession from taking any other fees than those allowed by the act, and in this shape was ordered to be engrossed for a third reading, which, in its present shape, it will probably never receive.

In the Senate, the most important business of the day was the effort of Mr. Hadley to pass the resolution rejected the other day in full Senate, ordering the printing of 2000 copies of the message. Several of the Republican Senators being absent, and having an accidental maj., the Senator tho't this a good time for one of those political manœuvres for which he is somewhat famed. Yesterday it was defeated, as your readers know, by the Republicans present absenting themselves.—To-day this was not done, and the resolution passed, with one Republican aye, the intention being to move a re-consideration to-morrow.

Whether the course of the Hon. Senator in this matter is strictly honorable, I will leave your readers to judge. I have always understood that whenever members of the political majority of the body were absent on official business, there was a tacit understanding that no political advantage should be taken. But in this case the matter has been driven through by force of political tactics, in the very face of that argument.—Messrs. Worthington and Pier, by appointment of the Senate, are at Waupun inspecting the State Prison, and will not be here before Thursday, and I think it very unfair thus to take advantage of their absence.

The Rev. Mr. Gridley delivered his lecture to-night on Capital Punishment, in the Assembly Hall to a large and interested audience. He took up the Bible argument, tracing it through the Old Testament dispensation to the New, and argued that as God himself had affixed the penalty of the crime, man had no right to alter that penalty. The lecture was a good one and well delivered. More to-morrow. SIGMA.

Fox Lake—Female Seminary—Hotels—Stores—Donation Party &c.

FOX LAKE, Jan. 25, 1856.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—It is gratifying to witness the progress of the several towns along the line of our Railways, as they are stretching their iron arms across our vast prairies, and bringing into nearer relationship so many evidences of prosperity as are indicated on every hand. Among the many indications of thrift witnessed in the interior villages of our State, perhaps none present a more striking change than the pretty little town contiguous to the railways passing through Dodge County.

Fox Lake, lying at the foot of the modest little Lake of that name, and which but a few years since, contained not over a dozen dwellings, is already "putting on airs", and is waiting with feverish breath and true loyal pride, the approach of the iron horse, as he comes thundering along the course prepared for him by the energy of the La Crosse and Milwaukee Rail Road Company.

Now are presented many attractions in its fine Seminary building, the walls of which are nearly completed, and occupying a beautiful plat of six acres of ground just back of the principal business street—three or four churches, a Bank with a capital of $25,000, three hotels that would be a credit to any place, several fine stores, among which is a commodious stone Store occupied by the TOWNSEND BROTHERS, a printing office, from which is issued a weekly paper, containing the progress of the "Times," as connected with matters and things in general, and Fox Lake, in particular, by your old typographical friend, CHAS. CONDIT, mechanic shops of all descriptions, lawyers and doctors in abundance, the cry of the "auctioneer" at regular intervals, livery stables, flouring mills, meat markets and bakeries, bowling and billiard saloons, and last though by no means least, brilliant donation parties and festive gatherings that would compare favorably with anything in that line got up by the Milwaukeeans.

Indeed, Fox Lake, with the indomitable energy of its inhabitants and the large extent of rich farming lands surrounding it, bids fair to become a flourishing town of 5000 inhabitants before many more years pass away, and will always be a delightful place for a residence. Buildings are going up rapidly in all directions—streets are being opened, and lots laid out for the benefit of new comers, and the population has more than doubled in the last three years.

The "American House," so admirably kept by Messrs. DUNHAM & DAVIS, has recently been enlarged by the addition of a three story brick building, 30 by 40 feet, well adapted to the wants of the place, and is neatly furnished throughout. This, with the frame portion, which is about 50 feet square, affords ample accommodation for the crowds of guests with which they seem to be so well favored, and all will find pleasant quarters, clean beds and a good table, which have occasion to stop at the American House.

The "Porter's Hotel," kept by G. M. YEAZIE, also seems to be doing a very fine business, and Mr. J. W. TOWER, of the "Empire House", is so completely overrun with guests that he often turns away from eight to ten teams a night for the want of accommodation. He anticipates building quite largely in the Spring.

Mr. C. ARNOLD, late of Milwaukee, who has recently purchased a beautiful farm of 80 acres adjoining the village, is also preparing to build a fine stone house next Season. Many neat residences, surrounded with shrubbery, meet the eye in whatever direction you pass.

A Donation Party was given to the Rev. Mr. BOOTH, of the Baptist Church, at the large Hall of the American House, on the evening of the 24th, the proceeds of which amounted to $235. Similar parties have recently been held here for the benefit of the Pastors connected with other churches, with like liberal benefactions, as also a very fine donation to the Milwaukee Orphan Asylum which is acknowledged through your city papers. Truly, "a liberal people deviseth liberal things." Yours, &c.
A. H. B.

Daniel Webster and John Randolph.

At the late Webster anniversary dinner in Boston, the following story was told by Professor SANBORN, of Dartmouth College:

...During the first years of Mr. Webster's services in Congress, Mr. Calhoun was speaking upon a proposition to require all the government dues to be paid in silver and gold. He was opposed to the measure; argued its inconvenience to the agents of the government with great ability, and incidentally asserted that in no instance had our government ever resorted to such measure.—Mr. Webster sitting by Randolph's side, said to him: "He is mistaken on that point—for there is a post-office law in the year 17—requiring deputies to receive only silver and gold in payment of postage." "Is there such a law?" said Randolph, with great earnestness, "show it to me."

Mr. Webster stepped to the Clerk's desk, and selected the volume of United States laws which contained the enactment alluded to, and opening to the very page where it was found, gave the book to Randolph. He studied it attentively, noted the page, chapter and section. The moment Mr. Calhoun took his seat, Randolph rose, and in his shrill and harsh tones, shouted, "Mr. Speaker," and gaining his attention, he proceeded to say: "Ars admirari is one of the beautiful and sententious maxims of Horace, which I learned in my boyhood, and to this day I have been wont to believe in its truth and to follow it in practice. But I give it up. It is no longer a rule of my life.

"I do wonder, and am utterly astonished that a man who assumes to legislate for the country should be so utterly ignorant of its existing laws. The gentleman mentions that the bill before the house introduces a new provision into our legislation. He does not know that it has ever been incorporated into any statute by any congress in our country's history, when it has been a common usage almost from the infancy of our nation. "Misgeruder," screamed the excited orator to one of the clerks, "Macgrader, take volume 5 of the United States laws, page 150, chapter 16, section 10, and read."

The clerk read: "Be it enacted, &c., that all the dues of postal department shall be paid in silver and gold," &c.

"Witness," said Randolph, "the gentleman's innocent simplicity, his utter want of acquaintance with the laws of the land for which he affects to be a leading legislator. Now, Mr. Speaker, I was educated to know the laws of my country. The law just recited, has been familiar to me from childhood; indeed, I cannot remember the time when I did not know it; yet simple and elementary as it is, the gentleman, in his superficial study of our laws, has overlooked it."

Later from Honduras—Reported invasion by Americans—the Gold Discovery.

The brig Helena Jane, Capt. F. Nickerson, arrived at this port yesterday, from the ports of Omoa and Truxillo, Honduras, having left the latter port on the 28th of December. Capt. Nickerson has for many years been engaged in the trade between this port and ports in Honduras, and has had business connections with many of the leading merchants of that country. Of course, the subject of engrossing interest in Honduras, while he was there, was the invasion by Walker of the adjoining Province of Nicaragua, and the probability that it would be followed up by a similar change in the Government of Honduras.

Honduras has, within a short time, undergone one of those sudden changes of rulers so common in the Republican Governments of Central and Southern America. The legally elected President, Cabanas, in October last, after a battle at Massaguana with the revolutionary forces under Gen. Guardiola, in which he was defeated, fled first to San Salvador and afterwards joined Walker in Nicaragua. A letter from the capital of Honduras, Comaygua, of Dec. 12th, states that it was reported there that Cabanas was on the frontiers of Honduras, at the head of four hundred American fillibusters and one thousand native troops. It is further stated in the letter, that Guardiola refuses to fight with the Yankees, as they are hostile, and he states his intention of taking the State of Honduras should the Americans enter.

The prevalent feeling among the leading natives of Truxillo, and more especially those engaged in mercantile affairs, is that of neutrality in the matter of a change in the Government of the country. If Walker should come and succeed in establishing himself, they say that they are willing to give him a trial. They have been so long a people kept suffering from weak and fluctuating Government that any government having the element of stability, protected the property of the inhabitants is respected, would be welcome.

Capt. Nickerson says that the reports there to the effect that Walker's army was increasing, and that he expected to be in a short time at the head of two thousand men. The time for the election and a President of the Republic of Honduras, according to the provisions of the Constitution, would, shortly arrive. That officer is elected by the votes of the two chambers, the Senate and Legislative Chambers, each consisting of fourteen members. The anti-Cabanas and anti-Walker party, from present appearance, will not attempt to elect their candidate, especially if the reported invasion by Cabanas and his American allies become an actual fact.

The province, for the possession of which a struggle is apprehended soon to take place, contains 68,680 square miles of territory, and a population of 803,000. It is traversed by numerous mountain ranges, the valleys between which are numerous and fertile. Harper's Gazeteer says that its mineral wealth is considerable, comprising gold, silver, lead and copper; also opals, emeralds, asbestos and cinnebar. In the interior the climate is salubrious, but on the North Coast and on the shores of the Pacific, the heat often reaches 120°, producing many annoying insects. There are extensive forests abounding in mahogany, cedar, and mora, (a species of fustic.) Cattle of a fine breed also abound. The inhabitants are willing that settlers should have all the land they want, and grants have been promised by Walker to his soldiers. Nicaragua, where Walker is now in command, has 49,000 square miles of territory, and a population of 247,000. It is a singular fact that in this country the females greatly exceed the males in number.

POOR POLICY.—S. M. Booth says that while the editors of the State Journal and Sentinel were admired as Republican Legislative Caucus, he was politely warned to cease. Such is the case, it exhibits a petty spitefulness, unworthy a respectable body. We can certainly see no reason for such a course.—Berlin Courant.

As the above story has commenced to twist, it is time truth began to put on her boots. The Republican caucus alluded to was held in our business office. No other room could be obtained at the time. There was barely space enough to accommodate the members of the caucus themselves, and candidates for legislative offices and appointments were, as they always are at the opening of a session, tabooed from them on a pot leg-dog; and this class are sure to inclinate themselves into every caucus, unless requested to leave. Accordingly when the meeting was called to order, all, except members of the legislature were politely asked to leave. Mr. Booth says the editors of the State Journal were especially excepted. We heard nothing of the kind. If such was the case, however, it was eminently proper, as we had necessary business to transact, were in our own office, and intended to remain unless forcibly ejected. It will be proper to state, moreover, that when we were asked for the use of the room, we informed the members that they were entirely welcome to it, but that we should reserve the right to remain until our business for the day was concluded. Mr. Booth was present and went out with the other outsiders. There was doubtless no objection to having him or any other Republican editor present. Mr. Watson, did subsequently come in, but knew nothing of what had transpired, and of course remained while he pleased, as Mr. Booth might have done. The latter has attempted to make out of this trifling matter a case of persecution towards himself and favoritism towards us. The favoritism shown us consisted simply in our not being kicked out of our own office, by a Republican caucus, during business hours.

We hope this explanation will prove satisfactory to the Courant.—Madison Journal.

FROM MACKINAC AND THE SAULTE.—A correspondent of the Lansing Journal, under date of Jan. 15, writing from East Saginaw, says

I learn from a gentleman who has just come from the Saulte, that the Lake is frozen over to the Sand Point, so that they now travel over it. There are about 180 inhabitants at and around the Saulte—from the Saulte up to Thunder Bay, all along shore, about 250 in all. It has been very cold there, but they have not had as much snow as at Saginaw or Flint. From Sand Point to Thunder Bay, there is very little ice in the Lake, but Tawas Bay is nearly frozen over.—Provisions are scarce, but they think they will have enough to last until the opening of navigation.

There is no fishing at the Saulte. The Indians are fishing for trout at Thunder Bay; they fish through holes cut in the ice, and use a decoy or wooden fish which they keep in motion until it attracts the Trout, and when he darts at it they spear him. While fishing, they lie flat upon the ice and cover their heads and the hole in the ice with their blankets.

On New Year's eve, there was a dance at Davison's Mills, at the highlands of the Saulte—there were 76 persons at the party—some of the ladies walked from the south eight miles, and from the north 20 miles—some came in dog trains. They had a glorious time, and most of them staid three days. It would seem an impossibility, and would doubtless prove such to one of our city girls, to travel over eight miles on foot, but the girls of the Saulte travel twice that distance, as easy as one of the aforesaid, and after it, dance a whole evening without a murmur—in fact with a deal of pleasure—whatever they may want in grace, being made up by strength and agility.

The Mackinac mail came down the 9th by way of the Saulte, and left for Mackinac on the 14th. The ice in the straits is bad—so that two trains came down together, one having to lay over a trip. Game is very plenty, and deer, beaver, otter, martin, lynx, &c., are killed in large numbers.

They are manufacturing lumber at Davison's Mill, for the Chicago market.

THE BALTIC CAMPAIGN.—Admiral Dundas, it seems, has for some time back virtually anticipated his own deprivation of the Baltic command, for he said he would not actually resume it. He considered the operations proposed by the admiralty for the next Baltic expedition to be perfectly futile, regarding Cronstadt as quite impregnable, and that it would be the sheerest waste of time men and materiel to attack it; Helsingfors is in precisely the same category; and, moreover, it is said that he disapproves of the war in principle and policy, and deems all the operations in the Baltic to be alike unwarranted, needless and preposterous.

Not only this, but, it is now added, that he acted against his better judgment [when he assailed Sweaborg; that he knew and said the assault would prove the partial, resultless and abortive thing it has turned out; that the fortresses, the real strength of the place, would be easily made stronger than ever, as they have been; and, lastly, he is reputed to have made as little secret of his opinions on all these points as did his predecessors Sir. C. Napier, on certain points the year before. We believe there is small doubt now that when the true story of the attack of Sweaborg comes to be told, it will differ as much from the gazetted narrative as the amended version current in January, 1856, of Balaklava charge, differed from that told by Lord Cardigan at the Lord Mayor's banquet the preceding year. —Liverpool Albion.

FOX RIVER R. R.—N. R. Norton, of Burlington, and Philo Beldon of Rochester, spent a portion of last week in Milwaukee arguing the claims of this road to the consideration of the people of that city. They have been very successful. Alex Mitchel, Hans Crocker, J. H. Tweedy and C. R. Allen, and other prominent men have taken the matter in hand and will doubtless do what such men only can do toward such a work. The people of Rochester and Burlington have been indefatigable in this enterprise and deserve as they will doubtless reap success. Messrs. Norton and Beldon say they expect considerable stock will be taken here.—Racine Democrat.

Wretched Condition of the Inhabitants of Kars.

A correspondent of the London Times says of the militia and Bashi Bazouks who aided in the defence of Kars:

"Numbers have been blown to death, and the villages along the road from Kars are filled with their miserable remains. We see them staggering all day along the principal thoroughfares into the city, haggard and footsore, their countenances half idiotic from cold, hunger and fatigue.

Their condition, even before leaving Kars, was as wretched as could be; so much so (I quote word for word from an eye witness) that it was positively painful to stir out the doors.—They were lying about in all directions, groaning piteously, watching the Russian provision-wagons, which, as it to add to their misery, passed almost all day within their sight. Townspeople and soldiers alike suffered all the horrors of famine. The former crowded round the General as he rode out of his quarters, and prayed him, with all the eloquence of despair, to seek some means of putting an end to their misery. Women forced their way into his very rooms, and implored, their starving children at his feet, implored him rather to kill them at once than let them perish thus piecemeal for want of sustenance.

The hospitals were crowded with sick; on the Thursday before the surrender, 80 men died in one day. Many went mad or became idiots from sheer hunger and hard work. Those who preserved a remnant of health, half-starved as they were, and scarcely clothed, were obliged to mount guard almost every night up to the ancles in snow. Since the battle of the 29th, there had been no animal food to issue to the troops. Horses had indeed been killed in the General's stables secretly by night, but the meat was sent to the hospitals for the sick. A pittance of bread or flour made into weak broth was all that the soldiers had to subsist upon. Discipline was almost at an end.

Gen. Scott's Annual Report.

The Annual Report of the General-in-Chief of the Army has been laid before Congress. Gen. Scott reviews, in an able manner, the condition of the Army, and recommends a Retired List, similar to that of the Navy. In this connection he remarks:

"Some forty or fifty officers, mostly in the higher commissions, rendered non-effective by the infirmities of age, by wounds or chronic diseases, now press downwards into lethargy and then despair; thrice the number of juniors are sighing for the increased rank, which would, before they are too old, increase the field of distinguished usefulness. How soon the undersigned may himself be considered one of the supernanuated he knows not; but, while any vigor remains, he will not cease to urge a remedy for the evil in question.

He also recommends an increase of compensation in proportion to the length of service to all officers of lower grade than Lieut. General.—Every additional five years service should, he thinks, be attended with a slight increase, as promotion in our Army in time of peace is too slow to secure the increased pay, due to increased experience and faithful service. He also recommends revision of the Articles of War and Pension Laws.

ANOTHER MAIL FAILURE—OUR FIRST MAIL FROM BELOW LEFT IN THE WOODS!—A mail bag containing a few letters from Kansas and Marquette was brought to the village to-day by the Indian carrier. "MICHIGAN," with the news of another mail failure of the most outrageous character. It appears by letters from L'Anse that, on Monday last, two Indian mail carriers arrived at the place with a small bag containing letters from Carp River who reported that they had left his bags of mail matter, hanging on trees, near the lake shore, about fifty miles from L'Anse. This mail matter, it will be recollected, contains the first news from below since the close of navigation. The bag which came, contained nothing but the Detroit papers of the 19th, whose violation of public trust is only equalled by another of like character on the contract between Marquette and Green Bay.

A correspondent in whom we have every confidence, and whose statements are entirely reliable, writes that the mails from here have been regularly forwarded from Marquette, and the whole of them have been lying piled up at Chandler's shanty, on the Escanaba, to await the convenience of the contractors; while three bags from below have been thrown off there, to make room for a barrel of pork.—Lake Sup. Miner.

DETROIT AND MILWAUKEE RAILWAY.—The work on this road is, we are pleased to learn, progressing rapidly. As our readers know, it is now completed as far as the village of Linden, five miles west of Fentonville. We are told that between Linden and the Maple river there is but three miles of grading to be done. From St. Johns, in our county, to the Maple is ten miles, making 13 miles of grading to be done between St. Johns and Linden. There is no heavy work, we believe, upon this 13 miles, except the cut at St. Johns, upon which workmen are now engaged. The prospect is that the road will be in running order to the "city of the woods" sometime in the coming summer, so that we may safely count on having the surplus of this year's crops carried out by it.

The completion of the road to the center of our county will raise the value of farming lands from 50 to 100 per cent., and personal property in proportion, besides which, we shall then have as good a market as any place in the interior of the State. We cannot conclude this article without bearing witness to the high estimation in which our citizens hold the indefatigable Stewart, thro' whose exertions the work has been its present favorable aspect. Northern Michigan will ever hold him in grateful remembrance.—Detroit (Clinton Co.) Express.

THE COMMERCE OF CLEVELAND.—At great expense of time and labor, we have been enabled to gather statistics as to the amount and value of articles received and shipped at this point during the last year. The Lake and Canal Receipts and clearances we have heretofore published; the figures as to the Railroad business we give in our commercial column to-day.

For the sake of presenting the whole thing in a nutshell, we recapitulate from all these tables:

Received by Lake	$51,563,895
" " Rail Roads	94,060,980
" " Canal (say)	15,000,000
Total		$161,624,875
Forwarded by Lake	$77,121,892
" " Rail Roads	54,091,564
" " Canal (say)	10,000,000
Total		$171,818,456
Grand total for 1855		$283,493,031

The increase of trade for 1855 over 1854, is more than $130,000,000—saying nothing about the canal trade—of which increase the Lake contributes $68,229,520, and the Rail Roads $71,530,940.—Herald.

DEATH PENALTY.—There was a Lecture delivered by the Rev Mr. Gridley, in the Congregational Church Sabbath evening last on the subject of Capital punishment, before a large and seemingly interested audience. Mr. G. in the course of his lecture displayed much strength of mind, in bringing out many interesting facts favorable to restoring the death penalty in cases of capital crimes. His reasoning and argument adduced were powerful, conclusive and convincive of repealing that odious law, whoever shall commit murder in the first degree shall be imprisoned for life, and placing upon the Statute Book of this State, the law both human and divine, "Whoever shall shed man's blood, by man his blood shall be shed." This law in our opinion is very much needed in this State, as a safeguard against a felon's murderous hand. And we hope our Legislative body will take immediate action, and restore the death law. There is no doubt, about two-thirds of the inhabitants of this State are in favor of restoring the divine law "whoever shall shed man's blood, by man his blood shall be shed."—Kenosha Telegraph & Tribune.

FROM THE PINERY.—Beautiful Winter weather, bright sun, sparkling on the snow. Everybody says it is the finest time for logging ever known in the Pinery. Cool yet; not an hour since the great fall of snow in December that the element would stick to a log; the fallen monarchs are as clean and dry in the handling and rolling as they would have been in September. Well, they are coming "to bank" now by thousands and tons of thousands along old Wisconsin. There will be one hundred million feet of boards made the coming season on "Upper Wisconsin." Produce keeps up well yet, and the supply light, especially of Pork, Oats, Butter, &c. Onions in great demand. Winter is more than half gone, and old fogy quid nuncs predict an early Spring. Let it come.—Steven's Pt. Pinery.

☞ The keel of a new and large first class propeller," says the Courier, "has just been laid at the ship yard of Van Slyke, Notter & Co. for Charles Bancroft, of Detroit. Its dimensions are: length of keel 175 feet; breadth of beam 31 feet, depth of hold 12 feet, and will be capable of carrying about 750 tons. Its engine is to be a low pressure one, with a 44 inch cylinder and 40 inch stroke, built at the Buffalo Steam Engine Works. She will be completed and ready for business at the opening of navigation, and, together with the Portsmouth, will form the line between Detroit and Dunkirk, connecting with the New York and Erie Railroad. A third boat will be placed in the line, should the business require it. The new propeller will be stout built, with all the late improvements, and well modelled for speed."—Buffalo Commercial.

☞ Three young Indies, on going to bed at Mr. Hunt's, near North Salem, Hendricks county, Indiana, a few days since, took a vessel of live charcoal into their bed-room, and on the next morning were all found dead.

A SCENE—THE KANSAS MESSAGE.—When the President's Message came into the House to-day, we had another grand and general scene of confusion. The President's Private Secretary appeared in the aisle, and the Door-Keeper announced "a message from the President of the United States!" The words had not left his lips ere Campbell, of Ohio, sprang to his feet and objected to its reception. Mr. Craige of North Carolina, a gaunt, wiry, six-and-a-half-footer, insisted on having the message announced, and attempted to argue the propriety of receiving it, but was greeted with deafening shouts of "Order," "order," from all sides of the House. Mr. Campbell persisted in his objection. Three-fourths the members rose to their feet. At least a dozen tried to speak at once, and the rest of the members shouted "Order!" while the Clerk hammered away with his gavel to little purpose. Craige was persistent, and yelled something about his rights, and his determination to be heard. Mr. Paine, of N. C., came forward to a position alongside of Mr. Craige, and protested against the conduct of the latter; and Bowie, of Md., went up to try and di-suade Paine from interfering. During all this time Campbell boldly maintained his position, and insisted on his objection. For a few minutes it looked as though a personal collision between him and Craige might occur. Mr. Bayingame, of Mass., seemed to have an instinctive idea of this probability, and his athletic form was speedily ranged alongside of Mr. Campbell, his face the while betokening an air of very cool and quiet determination.

Matters looked squally. But finally order was restored, and ovjection of Mr. Stephens, of Ga., the message was received, and finally was ordered to be read.—Cor. N. Y. Times.

FIRES.—A small shanty standing near the foot of River street, and belonging to Jack Hayes, was destroyed by fire on the afternoon of Monday, the 21st. Another fire broke out on the premises of William Murdock, on Main street, on Tuesday night, but was extinguished before doing much damage. And still another broke out in Richardson's Block, on Main street, over Pixley & Kimballs Hardware Store, on Saturday morning, about 4 o'clock. Fortunately, it was discovered in time to be easily subdued, else the damage might have been considerable. It was in the Police Court, January 30.

Thomas Matthews, for leaving his team unhitched was fined $2,00. James Foley on complaint of sureties to keep the peace, for threatening to kill his wife, was brought up, and the case continued to February 6th, at 10 A. M.

A woman named Hafer was arrested on a charge of assault and battery upon her son; the case was continued to this morning at 10 o'clock, and in default of bail for her appearance the woman was locked up in jail.

The charge against her is, that for several nights past she has driven her children into the street; one of them has had to come to the Watch House from the further side of the Fifth Ward. The complaint was lodged by her daughter.

NO MORE GAME TO BE SOLD.—To-morrow will be the first day of February, and is the last day upon which any Prairie Hens, Partridges, Quails, or Venison can be sold, without violating a city ordinance. As our Police are but doing their duty in arresting parties for violating the bridge ordinance, and for leaving their teams unhitched in the streets, we hope they will inform, or complain, of all persons who violate the game ordinance; although gaming has been carried on with impunity for years, we hope game selling will be stopped when it is out of season. The language of the City ordinance is that "for each Prairie Hen, Partridge, Quail or piece of Venison to exposed for sale or kept in possession," a penalty of $5,00 is to be inflicted; "one half of the said penalty shall go to the person or persons who shall prosecute to conviction, and the other half to the Commissioners of the Alms House, for the benefit of the poor."

FATAL BURNING OF TWO CHILDREN.—Day before yesterday, at about 9 A. M., an Irishman named Wm Magrath, employed on the grading in the 4th Ward, was informed by a messenger that his shanty was on fire.—Starting home, he found that his wife had gone away, and his two children, who had been left in the shanty, had probably been playing with the fire, and it was nearly consumed, the children being so badly burned that they both died before night.

SNOW DRIFTS ON THE RAILROADS.—The trains on the Lake Shore road were all out of gear yesterday, the road being obstructed by huge snow drifts filling up the cuts. The roads in various directions out of Chicago are blocked up from the same cause. Unless another storm should come on, they will soon dig out

LIABILITIES.

Unsettled claims for Losses and not due $170,082 47

The Ætna Insurance Company presents its portraits the very satisfactory condition, of a large increase in Cash Assets, for the further security of their policies—all our investments being placed at the minimum market value, at the present time of some depression in the standard of same. They are either prime dividend paying stocks, or good, valuable and clean investments, yielding moderate interest and income. The standard bank stocks which the Assets have been valued, being Gold at interest. Besides this solidity, the Company calls attention to the strength and security it derives from its combined system of Agencies, through its agents having the means of present to a united phalanx of experienced Underwriters, which has worked, for thirty-seven years, the happiest results to stockholders, and claimants for losses—and entitles it to enter the year 1856, with greater prestige for its success fulness, than has yet been reached by a really National Insurance Corporation.

THE
NEW YORK TRIBUNE, 1855-6

THE TRIBUNE is now in the middle of its fifteenth year. Vol. XV. of its weekly issue commenced on the 1st of September last. The American public need not now be made acquainted with its character or claims to consideration. While but a subordinate regard for prudence, policy or popularity, it has aimed to stand for Righteousness, for Truth, for Humanity, against fortified Iniquity, Fraud and Oppression. There is not a slave-trader on this Continent, though hammy never read anything but his bills of sale and notes-payable, who does not know and hate THE TRIBUNE; there is not an extensive fabricator of drugged and poisonous Liquors who does not consider it a very dangerous and immoral paper, and wonder why its publication is tolerated in a commercial, moneyhoarding City like New York. The Newark Mercury once forcibly remarked that it had never known a harsh, gripING, grinding, avaricious employer who was not a hearer of THE TRIBUNE, nor one eminently generous and kindly who did not like it. Prompt and plain-spoken in its denunciations of pilfering and abuses of power, while claiming to exempt from human infallibility, it may have done temporary injuries to individuals, but it has never been unfaithful to Principle, nor deaf to the cries of the wronged and suffering. Its columns the addresses of moral and unpopular theories contemplating the amelioration of human woes, especially those of the voiceless and down-trodden, have ever found kindness and hospitality; while it has steadily advised, and will persistingly combat, every attempt to proscribe and degrade any class because of divarsities of Nativity, Creed, or Color.

In defiance of calumnies the most atrocious, and of hostilities the most deadly and unsparing, THE TRIBUNE has grown steadily in public appreciation from the day of its origin. Its means of serving the public have been augmented in proportion. Instead of a single editor with only one pair of hands, its corps now consists of a numerous body of writers, each fitted by special accomplishment and experience for the particular line of discussion to which his pen is devoted; the daily amount of reading matter given more than quadruples that of its earliest issues; its staff of valued correspondents encircles the globe, transmitting regular and full reports of every thing worthy of mention; while Politics, Legislation, Literature, Art, History—in short whatever affects the social well-being or mental improvement of society is conveyed—finds here the freest and most searching discussion.

Animated by profound conviction in the beneficent solidity of Industrial Co-operation and Rational Intercommunication whose most conspicuous champion through the last Half-Century was HENRY CLAY—imbued, moreover, with the great truth that Intelligence tends and must tend more and more to and toward the much wronged aborigines of this Continent and of peace with All which will hallow the name of Whig, THE TRIBUNE, while surrendering no jot of its proper independence, has cooperated cordially and confidently with the Whig party, so long as its vitality was preserved. When in 1854 it was seen that a portion of the Opposition drew hesitating into its ranks, we sternly rejected the proposition to defer—till the close of the last Presidential campaign—even that a large portion of the Whigs proposed to defer—such open party rule as would enable all Anti-Slavery wing to share its triumph, even under a conservative Chief on a Pro-Slavery platform. We knew and proclaimed that the Whig party was in many of its conspicuous events, including the rise and culmination of the Know-Nothing conspiracy, and the speedy absorption therein of the whole force of Pro-Slavery Whiggism, only confirmed our undoubting anticipations. With no sickly lamentations, therefore, for the inevitably bygone, but with hope, and vigor, and sympathy, and a sense of duty, we have unfailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUBLICAN movement which, impelled by the Repeal of the Missouri Prohibition, has been consummated by the astounding outrages wherein the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by the repeated threats and utter vitiation of their victory—by the mob collected by conspiracy and buried suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, it accomplished its every purpose. Never, have we hailed the beginning and watched the progress of that mighty REPUBLICAN movement which, impelled by the Repeal of the Missouri Prohibition, has been consummated by the astounding outrages wherein the rights of the Free Settlers of Kansas have been the victims—by the repeated threats and utter vitiation of their victory—by the mob collected by conspiracy and buried suddenly upon them from the border counties of the neighboring Slave State, it accomplished its every purpose. We believe no other newspaper in the world has an subscription list over half so large as this; and no periodical of any sort can rival it. And while its extreme cheapness rendering all temptation of paying vouchers only an additional pecuniary advantage to us, has doubtless largely swelled its subscription list, it would be absurdity not to ascribe to this unprecedented patronage some evidence of public approval and esteem.

TERMS,

THE TRIBUNE employs no travelling agents and sends out no papers on trust. If it is not stopped when the term paid for expires, and the subscriber does not choose further to pay for it, we resort to no legal process to compel him. Unfailingly, we cease to supply every one for whom the expiration of the advance payment, unwilling a fresh remittance from the subscriber. If none comes, the account is closed. We pay no local agents; and we pay money paid to any whom the paper cannot trust him to mail or otherwise send it to us; once mailed, its safety is at our risk, and a new term risk is often proved by us. We request every one who deems it a good work to obtain and forward the names and money of his friends and neighbors. Our terms are invariably nine—for the

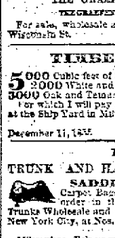
ANOTHER TRIUMPH OF HERRING'S SAF ES.



MR. SILAS C. HERRING—
Dear Sir:—The safe I bought of you, nearly two years since, has stood the ordeal all right. We dug it from the ruins in the cellar yesterday. The safe was in the back part of the fourth story of "Tattersall's Building," corner of Fifth and Chestnut streets, in the height of the fire of the 16th inst., and fell with the burning timbers a distance of 80 feet. It remained all my books and papers. Not a thing was saved on my premises except the contents of your safe, which coherently reminded the "fire fury of the flames." I am now using the same books and papers.
Yours, truly,

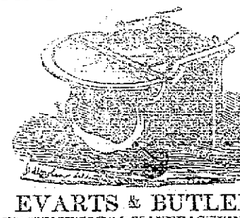
EVARTS'
PATENT SHINGLE MILL



EVARTS & BUTLER,
PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SHORTNESS OF TIME WHICH GIVES rise to this machine is sufficient, it produced by making the cut in the direction of the fibre of the wood.

The ease with which wood is worked in that direction gives it special value, and the durability of the shingle with the saw, so that it may be ground thin on its edge, so as to cut away but little of the wood.

The mill is now made with this mill in daily market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed shingles.

This mill is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.
